

Miles: 90
Authorized
2021

Dan River State Trail

A paddle trail that includes the 90 miles of the Dan River in North Carolina; the river itself crosses crisscrosses N.C. and Virginia eight times as it journeys from the Blue Ridge Mountains to Kerr Lake

Miles: 125
Authorized
2007

Deep River State Trail

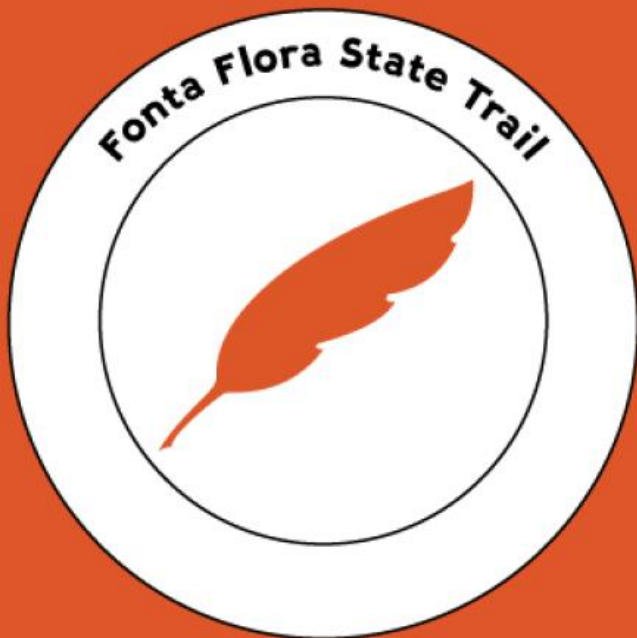

A hiking and paddling trail from Jamestown in Guilford County, following the river through Randolph and Moore counties, and ending at the river's confluence with the Cape Fear River near Moncure in Lee County

Greenway
miles: 795
Authorized 2021

East Coast Greenway State Trail

A hiking and biking trail, with one branch passing through Raleigh and the other following the coast, both merging at Wilmington and making up the N.C. portion of the 3,000-mile greenway connecting 15 states

Miles: 100
Authorized
2015

Fonta Flora State Trail

A hiking and biking trail linking Morganton and Asheville with a loop around Lake James, traversing Pisgah National Forest and will also be connecting to the Mountains-to-Sea and Overmountain Victory state trails

Miles: 117
Authorized
1978

French Broad River State Trail

A paddling trail on the third oldest river in the world, following 117 miles north from Rosman to the Tennessee border, crossing through Asheville and traversing Transylvania, Henderson, Buncombe, and Madison counties

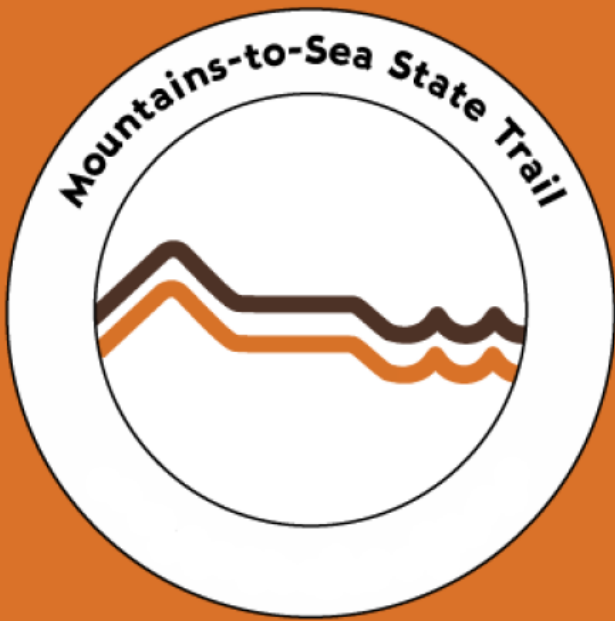

Miles: 50
Authorized
2017

Hickory Nut Gorge State Trail

A hiking and biking trail across Henderson, Rutherford, and Buncombe counties, linking Bearwallow and Weed Patch mountains, Chimney Rock State Park, Lake Lure, Bat Cave, and Florence Nature Preserve

Mountains-to-Sea State Trail

A hiking trail, with some sections open to biking and horseback riding, stretching from Clingman's Dome in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park to Jockey's Ridge State Park in the Outer Banks

Miles: 1400
Authorized
2000

Northern Peaks State Trail

A trail with a planning corridor of approximately 40 miles, beginning in Boone, passing Elk Knob State Park, and ending at Mount Jefferson State Natural Area in Ashe County; trail use yet to be determined

Proposed
miles: 40
Authorized
2019

Miles: 225
Authorized
2019

Overmountain Victory State Trail

A trail that will follow N.C.'s 225-mile portion of the National Historic Trail that marks a militia footpath from South Carolina to Virginia that was pivotal during the Revolutionary War; trail use yet to be determined

Miles: 132
Authorized
2021

Roanoke River State Trail

The newest state paddling trail, located in northeastern N.C. and crosses Halifax, Northampton, Bertie, Martin, and Washington counties, as it travels from Roanoke Rapids to the Albemarle Sound

Miles: 170
Authorized
2019

Wilderness Gateway State Trail

A hiking trail, with some sections open to biking, horseback riding, and paddling, connecting Hickory Nut Gorge State Trail and South Mountains State Park with the towns of Valdese and Hickory

Miles: 163
Authorized
1985

Yadkin River State Trail

A paddle trail that follows one of the state's longest rivers, extending for 130 miles through the nine counties of Wilkes, Surry, Yadkin, Forsyth, Davie, Davidson, Rowan, Stanly, and Montgomery